

Adjectives

Pick-a-Word

THERE ONCE WAS A spunky, spotted COW WHO LIVED IN A miniature HOUSE...

30 Different Pick-a-Word

Directions: Fill in each blank with an adjective. Remember to use words that really describe and give the reader a clear picture in their head. Make your sentences interesting, and then illustrate each paragraph.

Pick-a-Word

Adjectives

A creepy caterpillar crawled along the smooth ground. He stopped to look at the shiny, tall green grass. Suddenly, the loud sprinklers came on! Caterpillar enjoyed the bath.

There once was a fun teacher and her busy excited class. This teacher always loved to sing and dance during class time. The students thought she was amazing!

Three colorful butterflies flew circles in the air. They would fly anywhere. Until one day, the hungry red bird came to town. Then, the butterflies were too scared to fly around.

BY: Eric

FUN & CREATIVE

way to review adjectives

Pick-a-Word Adjectives

A Creepy caterpillar crawled along the smooth ground. He stopped to look at the shiny, tall green grass. Suddenly, the loud sprinklers came on! Caterpillar enjoyed the bath.

There once was a fun teacher and her busy excited class. This teacher always loved to sing and dance during class time. The students thought she was amazing!

Three colorful butterflies flew circles in the air. They would fly anywhere. Until one day, the hungry, red bird came to town. Then, the butterflies were too scared to fly around.

© Trained Elementary All rights reserved

Extras Included!

Adjectives PICK-A-WORD Class Book

Pick-a-Word

Adjectives Sample Answer Key

Sample adjectives are capitalized in each MAD LTB below:

A SCREEPY caterpillar crawled along the SOOTHY ground. He stopped to look at the SHINY, TALL,
GREEN grass.
Suddenly, the LOUD
sprinklers came on!
Caterpillar enjoyed the bath.

There once was a FUN teacher and her BUSY, EXCITED class.
This teacher always loved to sing and dance during class time. The students thought she was COOL!

Three COLORFUL butterflies flew circles in the air.
They would fly anywhere. Until one day, the HUNGRY, RED
bird came to town.
Then the butterfly