

Quotation Marks...

Show that a person is talking.

"Let me in!" demanded the wolf.

Quotation Marks...

Always wrap around what someone is saying.

The quotation marks wrap around what the little

"I am re

PowerPoint Anchor Charts

Quotation Marks Activity

Directions: Use the punctuation tiles below to complete each sentence. Glue them into place once you think they are in the correct spot.

I am getting hungry

Are you ready to leave

Watch out for the bus

I don't want to go home

Quotation Marks Activity Card #1

Directions: Use the punctuation tiles below to complete each sentence. Glue them into place once you think they are in the correct spot.

I am getting hungry declared Mary asked Billy

shouted Jenny

I don't want to go home whined Cory

Differentiate

Whiteboard Quotations

Print the following punctuation marks onto heavy paper or cardstock. Add a piece of magnetic tape to the back of each piece and use on the classroom whiteboard.

CCSS W.3.3, W.4.3

Quotation Match-Up Activity

1. Give each student a set of quotation marks and a set of sentences.

2. Let students work in pairs to match the quotation marks to the sentences.

3. There should be three correct matches for each set of quotation marks.

Example:

"I am getting hungry"

4. Once students have read their sentences, they should read their matches.

5. Give students a page template to write their matches.

Quotation Match-Up Writing Activity

After students complete the class Quotation Match-Up Activity, they can participate in creating a page for their writing.

Quotation: _____

Directions:

1. Edit the quotation to fit the situation.
2. Highlight the quotation.
3. The quotation should be on a separate line.
4. Once you have finished, you can use the quotation in your writing.
5. Check your work.

Various activities, games and writing practice!

Don't "Bug" Me!

Quotation Sorting Game

The idea of this game is to determine whether or not quotation marks have been used correctly or incorrectly on the game cards. Each game card has a certain number of "bugs" listed on it (for example, a card with 3 bugs has 3 incorrect quotation marks).

